

Competition brief for the international garden architecture award best private plots 10 – Die besten Gärten 2010

I Awarding Authority

The Lower Austrian government agency "Lebensqualität - Aktion Natur im Garten" is funding the international garden architecture award "best private plots 10 – Die besten Gärten 2010" in order to foster and recognize achievements in the design of private outdoor spaces.

The award highlights gardens as places of innovation, as spaces for creative expression and action, and as contemporary dialogue between architecture, ecology and landscape. The competition is an important component of the discourse on the design of sustainable private outdoor spaces.

II Theme of the Competition

The international competition best private plots 10 – Die besten Gärten 2010 is being held for the fourth year. The prize honors exceptional achievements in the design of sustainable private outdoor spaces and gardens. The award criteria include: idea, artistic and conceptual quality, ecological quality, use of plants and materials, relationship between inside and outside, delimitation of space and organization of open space, and sustainability. Special attention will also be given to diversity of individual uses and functionality. The outdoor spaces must be clearly identifiable as intended for private residence and use.

The outdoor spaces must have been completed after January 1, 2000. Awards are given in recognition of newly designed gardens or of the redesign of existing gardens.

Submissions may include roof gardens and terraces, extensions of living space, courtyard gardens, gardens, shared gardens, landscape gardens, water gardens etc.

III Eligibility

The competition is open to landscape architects, architects, designers, artists, gardeners, florists, landscaping firms and plant nurseries, as well as to garden owners, or teams consisting of a combination thereof.

IV Language of the Competition

Official language of the competition: English

V Entry Requirements

Each entrant may submit only one project. Multiple entries will be disqualified.

Each project can be submitted only once. Projects that have already been submitted for "best private plots" in 2006, 2007 or 2008 will be disqualified.

1. Poster

Entrants are required to submit a poster to be used for presentation (rolled), A0 vertical or A0 horizontal, featuring plans, photos, a project description, with optional supplementary sketches, sections, detail drawings, elevations, plant lists etc.

Please ensure that the name(s) of the entrant(s) and the location of the garden or the private outdoor space are clearly visible on the poster.

The posters depicting the approx. thirty projects nominated will be shown in the exhibition "best private plots 10 – Die besten Gärten 2010".

2. Poster as Handout A3

A handout (one sheet) with the same content as the poster serves as the basis for assessment by the jury, A3 format is required.

3. Project description

A portrait of the garden, unique aspects of the garden, information to the location of one A4 sheet (500 words). In case of nomination this text will be the basis for the description of the project in the catalog which will be written by Peter Zöch (editor of topos landscape architecture review).

4. CD – Digital Submission

In addition, all materials must be submitted in digital form (CD, flash drive):

- Poster A0 as PDF
- Handout A3 (one sheet), with the same content as the poster as PDF
- Project description (portrait of the garden, unique aspects of the garden) as Word, PDF or RTF file, one A4 sheet
- Images: 4 to 8 photographs (A4) as TIF, JPG or Photoshop EPS, resolution 300 dpi, stating the rights to the photographs and giving the name(s) of the photographer(s)
